

CITY BOUNDARIES.—Among the petitions presented yesterday in the senate was one by Mr. Foot to change the boundaries of the city of Janesville. Mr. F. also presented a remonstrance of inhabitants of the town of Rock against the change.

Hon. J. H. Knowlton, of this city, has publicly announced a compliance with numerous requests to become an independent candidate for judge of the supreme court.

MILWAUKEE POSTMASTER.—A special dispatch to the New York Times, dated 12th, states that John Lockwood had been nominated postmaster of Milwaukee, but no mention has been made of it in the regular despatches.

TEMPERANCE.—We yesterday saw some radishes and a lot of lettuce, this spring's growth, at Ballou's family grocery. They were raised in the southern part of Illinois, and brought here from Chicago.

The Band of Hope will meet Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock A. M.

SUPREME JUDGE.—Among our exchanges to-day, the Racine Advocate, the Dodge County Citizen, the Columbus Journal, the Fond du Lac Commonwealth, and the Watertown Republican express their preference for Judge Cole for judge of the supreme court. Several other papers, in various parts of the state, had previously expressed the same preference.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

A Hint.—Vanity Fair would suggest to the senators who left the senate for the senate's good, that hereafter instead of affixing to their names the initials U. S. S. they write A. S. S. A Seceding Senator.

They get up model love letters at Cleveland, short, sweet, and spelt upon the principle of complete succession from dictionary rules. Here is one read in court last week: "dear—thow absent not forgotten thares a good ym cumin wate a little longer."

AGES OF THE MEMBERS OF THE CABINET.—Mr. Blair is the only one of the seven gentlemen in the new cabinet, who is under 50 years of age. He is about 45 years old.

Mr. Bates is 68, Mr. Seaward 60, Mr. Chase 62, Mr. Cameron 60, Mr. Welles about 62, and Mr. Smith 56.

The New Haven clock company makes 686 clocks per day, or 250,000 a year. There are 150 kinds of clocks made, and each contains 400 parts. The number of rooms occupied by workmen in this establishment is about 100.

The new Armstrong guns cost the English government $10,000 each. For their construction a grant of $10,000,000 had been made by parliament, of which the greater part has been expended, and 451 guns of every calibre have been completed.

The patent is kept with the government, and none are allowed to be exported or sold.

The oldest person in the Onondaga tribe of Indians, still flourishing near Syracuse, N. Y., died last week. Her name was Hannah, and she was over 120 years old. Many years ago she embraced christianity, and continued a steadfast member of the Catholic church till the day of her death. All the tribe called her "mother."

Three young scamps were fined $15 each at Montreal, C. E., for attempting to kiss a pretty girl in the street, and then snow-balling her little brother, who tried to prevent the outrage.

An Ottawa (Canada) paper says that it knows of upwards of ten mercantile establishments in that district so filled and glutted with produce, that they are now refusing to receive it, even in payment of old debts.

A gentleman said once to his son who used to stay in bed late in the morning, "Your brother got up this morning at 5 o'clock, and found a 'purse of gold on the sidewalk.' 'Very well,' replied the lazy young man, 'if the poor fellow to whom it belongs had remained in bed till 10, he probably would not have lost it.'"

Just at this time, when an unusual interest seems to attach to the post-offices of the country, the following information from Holbrook's Mail will not be amiss: "Postmaster's Fees.—From remarks which we frequently hear, as to the pecuniary value to the incumbents of our largest post-offices, it is evident that the subject is about as little understood as any other connected with postoffice matters. For instance, quite an intelligent merchant recently insisted, in our hearing, that the New York postoffice was worth 'all the way from $6,000 to $15,000 per annum to the postmaster.' The facts are simply these: This matter of the compensation of postmasters is entirely regulated and controlled by law. All officers where the commissions amount to $2,000 and upward, are designated as salary officers, $2,000 being the maximum pay allowed from that source, and an additional $2,000 to be taken out of the receipts of the postoffice making $4,000 the highest compensation to any postmaster. A larger sum than this cannot be realized without resorting to acts made criminal and felonious by laws of congress, and punishable by the severest penalties. Even were a postmaster inclined to take the risk of such penalties, as well as the ruin of private and official character, such are the checks and restraints now enforced, that the 'pickings and stealings' which many outsiders so flippantly talk about, are entirely out of the question. And if it were not so, the indulgence in such practices would involve perjury, as a postmaster is required to make oath that he has kept nothing from the government in the way of fees or emoluments of any kind, to which he is not legally entitled. It will thus be seen that the New York postoffice, with its 238 clerks, 117 pennyposts, $1,000,000 annual revenue collected, and its $150,000 bonds, under an honest administration of its duties, cannot be made to net much, if any, more than a name, other offices, with perhaps a dozen clerks, a few thousand connections, and required surpluses of one-fifth the amount of the New York office.

We intend soon to prepare a statement of the emoluments received annually at the large post-offices in the several states.

Something Interesting to Everybody.

We would take the pleasure of informing the citizens of Janesville that the branch of the original New York One Dollar Jewelry Establishment has just opened, at May's buildings, 3 doors west of the Post Office, one of the finest stocks of
